The fact that an investigation is continuing or that discovery is not complete shall not be used as an excuse for any failure to respond to each Interrogatory as fully as possible. 3. To the extent that Judgment Debtor objects to any Interrogatory on the basis that a word or phrase is undefined, Judgment Debtor shall identify the specific word or phrase subject to the objection, describe Judgment Debtor’s understanding of the word or phrase’s common usage and meaning, and respond to the Interrogatory using Judgment Debtor’s stated understanding of the word or phrase subject to the objection.

4. The following rules of construction apply to these Interrogatories:
 - a. the term “all” shall be construed to mean each or any, and the term “each” or “any” shall be construed to mean all as necessary to bring within the scope of the Interrogatory all responses that might otherwise be construed to be outside of its scope;
